

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, August 14. 1705.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated August 4.

Madrid, July 17.

THE Regiment of Spanish Guards commanded by the Count d'Aguilar is recruiting, and no Men are admitted into it that are not full 5 Foot 8 Inches High. New Cloaths and Mounting for all the Regiments of Guards, are making with all Expedition, and Monsieur Orri pays the Undertakers punctually. Guard houses, or Lodgings, are making in the Square Court of the Palace for the said Guards. The Marquis de Lanzarote, Captain of a Company of the Count d'Aguilar's Regiment of Guards, was banish'd last Week, for having rescued a Man that was carrying to Prison; but the King has since pardon'd him, in Consideration of the Services he has done in the present War. The Marquis de Thouy, who commanded the Troops in Castile, is arriv'd at Court, and will shortly set out for Lions his Birth-place; after some stay there, he will proceed to the Court of France. The Marquis of Jamaica set out for that Court on Monday last, being sent Envoy extraordinary to make the Compliments of Condolance on the Death of the Duke of Britany. They write from Cadix, that a Regiment of Marines is forming there, which will be employ'd on board the Men of War or Galleys, or in the Forts and Castles of Cadix. That Place is sufficiently furnish'd with Men, Ammunition, and Provisions; and Monsieur du Casse has caus'd some unserviceable Vessels to be sunk in the Passage between the Puntal and Fort Matagorda, to hinder the Enemy's entring if they should attempt it. By order of the Chamber or Council of Trade of Seville, the Goods which had been sent by Merchants to Cadix to be put on board the Galleons, are carried up to Seville; and the Goods taken out of each Ship are put into a separate Warehouse, till an Opportunity offer to send them away.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated August 11.

Madrid, July 23. We have receiv'd an Account of the Arrival of the Princess of Ursini at Victoria, and she is expected at this Court the beginning of next Month. The Recruits and new Levies go on successfully, as do also the other Preparations for the Autumn-Campaign. 'Tis confirm'd from several Places in Portugal, that the Amirante of Castile died the 31st of last Month at Estremoz, and that his Body being embalm'd is carried to Lisbon. We are inform'd that the Hostilities which some Inhabitants of Vicque in Catalonia have committed against those of Manllen, were upon a particular Dispute between them touching some Tract of Ground, the Product of which is claim'd by each: In those Tumults, 20 Men were kill'd or wounded: But through the Vigilance of the Viceroy, all is quiet now in that Principality.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated August 11, Cadix, July 18. The 11th of this Month the Enemy's Fleet were in sight of this Place, from 9 in the Morning till 2 in the Afternoon; 6 or 7 Dutch Men of War stood in pretty near to the Island of Lion, and sent 2 Shallops to sound the Shore. Don Juan Antonio d'Amezaga, who commands there, advanc'd immediately with 3 Regiments of Horse and Foot to dispute the Enemy's Landing had they attempted it. But in the Afternoon they stood out to Sea, directing their Course to Cape Spartel. Upon their Appearance off this Place, all the Posts were immediately well supplied with Men to defend them; particularly Matagorda, Trocadera, and Cantarilli. 2 Ships are sunk in the Entrance by the Puntal, and 8 others are kept ready to be sunk. 4 French Men of War are posted within the Puntal, with 4 Spanish Galleys, and a large flat Vessel on which is a Battery of 10 twenty four Pounders. There are in this City 5600 Foot and 350 Horse. The Regiments of Bonneville and Mahoni are on the Island of Lion, with 2 Battallions of the Regiment of Barrois. There are 900 Horse and some Foot at St. Mary, 3 Batteries between this Town and the Puntal, and 3 others flank the River. The Fort of St. Pedro, is likewise well provided for its Defence.
